[Sept. 16, 1864] wanted, RY HIDES and Dry Sheep Skins, for which

Office on the north side of public square.

we will pay the highest market price.
KIDD & WYMORE. Nov. 24, '65-27tf. J. P. MCCAULEY,

AUCTIONEER, LIBERTY, CLAY COUNTY, MO. January 27, 1865.-36w5

E. M. SAMUEL, GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANT, NO. 106 NORTH SECOND STREET, St. Louis, Mo.

Especial attention paid to the sale of Hemp, Will continue to offer the Tobacco, Wool, Dry Hides, and Country Produce generally; and also to the purchase, on orders, of Flour, Sult, Groceries, &c. October 20th, 1865-tf. L. W. BURRIS,

(Formerly of Clay County, Mo.,) COMMISSION MERCHANT. No. 64 (up stairs) Commercial Street. ST. LOUIS, MO Will give personal attention to purchasing and shipping on orders from Country Merchants Grosers and Farmers, as well as sell all Produce that may be consigned to him. September 1, 1865-6m

DR. GRIMES, Surgeon Dentist, LIBERTY, MO. 20 Office over Allen & Hall's Drug Store.

May 13, 1864-51tf SULLIVAN & SUTTON, AUCTIONEERS LIBERTY, MO.,

Vill attend to all calls in Clay or adjoining counties, at low rates, and hope to merit a share of patronage. [oct27tf.]

JAMES C. MURRAY, ATTORNEY AT LAW. LIBERTY, MO. Office in the Court House, over County

Liberty, Aug. 18, 1865-13tf F. GWINNER. ATTORNEY AT LAW,

CLAIM AGENT NOTARY PUBLIC, LIBERTY, MISSOURI. OFFICE in the North East corner of the Court-House, up-stairs-entrance through the Court Room and the North Door of the Court-House.

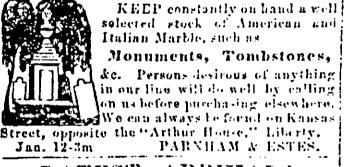

July 21st, 1865-0tf S. S. TODD, M. D., PHYSICIAN, SURGEON & OCCULIST, KANSAS CITY. Office opposite the Court House.

March 2, 1866,-406m J. B. LAMPTON, ATTORNEY AT LAW

LAND AGENT, Will practice Law, and attend to the vale of Lands in the counties of Clay, Ray, Chinton

200 Office, over Hall's New Drug Store. PARNHAM & ESTES.

Marble Dealers, LIBERTY, CLAY CO., MO.

We can always to found on Kansas Street, opposite the "Arthur House," Liberty. PARNHAM & ESTES. LATEST ARRIVAL!

BOOT & SHOE MANUFACTORY.

P. & J. FRAHER HAVE just received a large stock of Leather, including a fine assortment of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Ekoes of all descriptions, which they will sell as sheap for each as any house in upper Missouri. Store on the northwest corner of the public May 16, 1862 ly

DAILY HACK LINE

KANSAS CITY. N and after Sunday next, we will run a Daily ning at 61/2 o'clock. WYMORE & GARTH. May 5th, 1865.

N. D. TARR, Dealer in Watches, Clocks and Jewelry SILVER AND PLATED WARE, Musical Instruments Strings, Fancy Gouds. Watches, Clocks and Jewelry repaired to order MATERIAL FOR THE TRADE.

LIBERTY, MO., January 31, 1862, 37-4f. W. B. COCKRELL,

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in

GROCERIES & PROVISIONS

NO. 6 EAST LEVEE. Opposite Ferry Boat Landing,)

May 20tf KANSAS CITY, MO. DAVID S. MILLER,

NOTARY PUBLIC AND CLAIM AGENT. LIBERTY, CLAY CO., MO. VILL pay particular attention to the collection of claims against the State for services in the Enrolled Missouri Militia, for forage and other supplies farnished the State and U. S. horses lost in the State or U. S. service; back pay and pensions, &c., &c. All business intrusted to his care will be attended to with dispatch. Paw Paw Service Claims adjusted and collected.

Oetgber 13th, 1865-21tf J. J. ARMSTRONG,

FOUNDERY. LIAVING established a FOUNDERY and MA. CHINE SHOP in Liberty, Clay county, Moare now prepared to make IRON or BRASS CASTINGS, and do all kinds of repairing for Factories, Saw and first Mills, Horse Powers, Agricultural Implements, Iron Pipes, Stoves, &c., and will keep on hand Fire Irons, Wagon Boxes, Work, Window Weights, Window Caps and Sills, Columns and House Castings generally; also, CORN SHELLERS, and FARM BOILDERS. Orders solicited and promptly executed. Liberty, April 20, 1860-494f.

VOLUME

LIBERTY, CLAY COUNTY, MO., APRIL 20, 1866.

QUARTERS!

Denny & Pettu Having rented of R. H. Miller the large store room under the Tribune office, for three years, and having made arrangements in

To receive a new supply of

GOODS,

EVERY TEN DAYS.

BEST BARGAINS IN THE CITY And fill all orders on short time.

> Respectfully, DENNY & PETTY.

Aug. 25, 1865.-14tf

WINTER GOODS!

JAMES M. JONES, North Side Square, Liberty, HAS just received his usual fine assortment of Fall & Winter Goods, consisting of

Fine Black and Blue Cloths, Black Doe Skin and Fancy French Cassi-BLACK AND FANCY GRENADINE SILK, PLUSH, AND VELVET & CASH-

MERE, VESTINGS. I also have a complete assortment of Furnishing Goods. Stocks, Ties, Cravats, Gloves, Suspenders, &c. &c.

Also, TAILORS' TRIMMINGS. READY-MADE CLOTHING. I have on handa very superior stock of Ready 23 Work from ther houses will be cut and made with the same . re as that sold by us. Cutting.

Particular attention paid to cutting and arrangng so as to be well understood by the seamstress. AB My Terms are CASH. JAS. M. JONES. Liberty, Sept. 22, 1865.

BAXTER & WYMORE,

XIOHAD state to the public that they have oper Wedanew FAMILY GROCELY STORE on the East side of the public square, where they foll, or quality of goods at low rates. Their stock of goods was selected by an expectanced merchant and consists in part of the following --

COFFEE, TEA,

SUGAR, all grades,

MOLASES, CANDIES,

CANDLES, CRACKERS,

FLOUR,

NUTS,

Wooden Ware, Baskets, Ax Handles, Brooms Oysters, Sardines, cannol Pruits, Cheese, Raisius, in our line, promising them good goods at reason-Eggs, Game, Dry Hides, &c.

AND OTHER

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

CO., and from other good makers, superior plane

Melodeous and Church Harmoniums Line of Hacks between Liberty and Kansas of CARHART NEEDRAM & CO., varying in eimers, Hurdy Gardies, Zitters, Bird Organs, Clarionets, Flutes, Fifes, Piccoles, Flageolets, French and German Accordeons, Concertinas, Harmonicas ! der Saxe Horns with piston or rotary valves. her, but received no answer to her note, ... Yes, mama, is in, hut-Trumpets, Trombones, French Horns, Bugles, French, German and Italian Violin and Guitar Strings, &c., &., &c.

No. 36 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., sole agent for the sale of F. C. Lighte & Co.'s and Carhart, Needham & Co.'s celebrated instruments. October 20th, 1865 22mil. *

TAILORING! TURPIN, BLAND & CO.

HAVE just recoived a large stock of Gentlemen's Goods such as

All kinds of

CASSIMERES: SILK & VELVET VESTINGS.

together with a full stock of FURNISHING COODS, Such as Cotton and Woolen Shirts, Undershirts Drawers, Ties, Gloves, Suspenders, &c.

Also a splendid stock of stylish HATS.

Weexpect to be receiving goods every few weeks during the season, and hope by strict attention to our own business to receive a share of patronage. STORK-West side of the public Square, next purse, Martha.

THET RECEIVED and for sale, by Moss and Atmstrong, fifty Sacks and twenty barrels of FLOUR, which we warrant to be good. Also 20 if you are ready for the raffle; he says you bushels of new TIMOTHY SEED. [13tf]

From the Louisville Courier. RICHES AND POVERTY.

the eldest child, was like her father, proud, fone bundred dollars.

ters at a fashionable boarding school and a few days I will see and relieve her.

most of her spare time was devoted to mu- that she passed without noticing them. ed but little for the fashionable follies a sad countenance!" Mary, and called her his Queen of Beauty. ter. At seventeen she was the belle of many, "Does her sister live in this house?" dashing beau. Her father was much B, the defaulter." pleased with the match, and the splendor | James started, but said nothing. His didn't receive any pleasure from the quiet, acquaintance between them was recent, mother she had known only in imagination intellectual conversation of Anna, althor having been formed lately when traveling, but whose spiritual presence had sustainshe was untiring in her efforts to entertain | While they were thus talking, Mary made | ed ber through her past life. Her first but was again disappointed, for it soon be- gay Capt. L. Recognizing James' friend, cross in her mother's sanctuary, and press came apparent that there was no sympathy she bowed slightly, stepped into the car | the resary to her lips. Except James, no consisting of all kinds of Shirts, Collars, Silk and | between father and child. He didn't un- riage, and was driven off to the rafile. Sie other knee had pressed that cushion, Woolen Undershirts, cotton and woolen Drawers. | derstand the high soul and noble princi- arrived too late. however, for the prizes | no other heart had poured itself forth at ples of the son who could not enter into thad all been drawn. finest grades, which I will sell as low as possible. I terviews with his sister Anna, for the turn selfish exactions of her father left her -

James could not live this life of depenhonest and industrious: with nothing to introduce you to her." boast of but a bright intellect and his . No. I do not wish it."

days the truth lower upon her; he had power to relieve them, and I hope it is not the money was spent as soon as obtained, time to increase the number of commission. a gain to Conservatism proves that he can been a definiter, and had committed suit too late.

la fruitless search for business, would re- ; "At which Hotel are you stopping, the gel, thither her footsteps often tend. SUPERIOR PIANO FORTES turn bome weary and dejected; but Anna's National or Brown's?" cheerfulness would almost make him for-

Thus time passed on, he wrote day and THE SUBSCRIBER OFFERS: Henry could bear to see his wife leaving early again—to come to morrow night and according to their respective numbers.—

for sale, from the celebrated her infant daily and going through the take tea with her, she would be quite Constitution of the United States. streets in all weather to fulfill ber engage- alone. $275, 8310, $275, $400, $425, $450, $525, $575 prostrated by a nervous fever, and Anna | convenient he would do so, he left. such as Violing, Guitare, Banjos, Bass and Tener out funds, and determined to apply to sun for it was a day in early spring. He American, Drums, Boys' and Toy Drums, Tamborines, Dul-, her rich sister, who was living in a su- asked if her mamma was in, for he felt at and so determined to apply in person .- "Tell her brother James wishes to see Her heart beat violently as she ascended ther. the marble steps, and her hand trembled :

as she rang the bell. when she received it; for a moment even husband, his old friend and schoolmate. of her dead mother, "Who will guide my when I am gone."

She took the cross from her neck, that had been her solace through many trials, and placed it around her child's, and clasped the little Anna to her heart, and with that last kiss she passed from life to

As Mary sat thus, with the scene passing in her mind, she exclaimed: "My poor sister! I have neglected her

Just as she was handling it, another servant entered with a low bow and said: "Madam, Capt. L .--- wishes to know will be too late for the diamond bracelet."

how long I have kept him waiting! My cians gave hope, and that hope, to the Its Provisions as Passed by both Houses sympathies for this poor woman have quite | watchers' hearts was like the return of the In the city of W ---, in a splendid Man- driven everything out of my head. Say I dove with the olive branch to the ark. sion, lived Col. B ---, with his family; will be down in a moment, John." Look- With change of air, the improved conhis wife, two daughters and a son. Mary, ing over her money she finds she has but dition of his family, bright hopes before selfish and feeble-minded. James and "The stingy fellow! is that all he gave tion, Henry soon entirely recovered, and Anna resembled their mother, being after me? He has become so close of late, and the brothers went into business together. St. Louis, St. Joseph & Leavenworth, fectionate, amiable and intelligent. Mrs. talks so strangely about retrenchment!-B did not live long to exert her in- What shall I do? I wish to give her fifty, her husband and her brother that she was fluence over her children, but lest them but I cannot be seen at the raffle with less not then to share. It was not long, tude, except as a punishment for crime pretension as contrasted with small results. with many charges to their indulgent than a hundred dollars! Martha, go and t ough, before it was happily solved by whereof the party shall have been duly As translated into our language it reads: father; but he soon tired of the care thus tell the poor woman that I am entirely un the old family carriage stopping at the convicted, shall have the same rights in ev- "The mountain labored, and labored, and imposed upon him, and placed his daugh- nerved and cannot see her to day, but in door for herself and "pet Annie," and old ery State and Territory, to make and enhis son at college, where they were to re- Poor Anna received the answer as one main until their educations should be stupified. The kind hearted Irish girl that took back the cross said:

After traveling, Col. B. returned home | "Can I be of any service to you?" and took his daughters from school, and This recalled Anna to herself, and as how much you is like old mistress! How ceedings for the security of person and placed them under a frivolous French gov- | she descended the steps, with her eyes erness. Mary paid very little attention blinded with tears, she ran against two is not a Bradford, though she is a born and shall be subject to like punishment, parlor. Anna was a close student; the the yard. The gentlemen stepped aside, is a going to live with you, Miss Anna, an' sic: she was modest and retiring, and car- Did you observe that woman? What pointed in her but was delighted with been to beg of her rich and heartless sis-gay parties, and soon married a wealthy! "Yes: they are the daughters of old Col.

of the wedding was talked of for weeks friend rattled on, giving him a full des cription of the sisters, little thinking that | Henry. On recovering, she found here The father missed his gay butterfly and the was talking to their brother, for the self in the bondoir of her mother-that but found his chief pleasure in visiting should have been here in time! She cross- As the rose from her knees, James put Made Clothing, running from the coarsest to the libraries, and occasional private in les my path like a snake at nearly every a roll of paper in her hand and said: "It > but little time to devote to ber dear broth- gentlemen proceeded on their way, the friends of the family. Mary and her huschier said to James:

dence, and left his home to provide for the most extravagant one in the city .-- and dinner being over, the present was She and her husband both gamble. I do examined and found to be a deed of the Anna married, but much against her inot see how they stand it. You always house and land that her brother had just father's wishes, one who was an under timeet the most fashionable persons at her given her. She again received the warm's clerk in his banking house poor, but house. I will take an early oportunity to leengratulations of her friends, among the imprisoning or bailing offenders against the pure character. These were all to Anna. The friends parted, James to his goom, saints be praised for this blessed day! ery other officer who may be specially embut nothing to her proud father and sis to think over his past condict, and blame | Lord, I is so happy -- so happy! ter, who in time east the young couple himself for his neglow to his sisters -- | Mary and her busband still lived on in States, are specially authorized and requir-· While I've had plenty," said he "Anne I their extravagant style. The more they ed, at the expense of the United States, to A few days after Anna's removal to her has been suffering. And that noble fel lost, the more reckless they became, until institute proceedings against every person faction will be perfectly annihilated .more humble home, she was shocked to low, her busband, has been struggling to their fortune was entirely gone and they who shall violate the provisions of this act; The Providence (R. I.) Post regards the hear of her father's sadden death, for she maintain her and their chail. I fear he were very much in debt. Henry and andit is made the duty of the Circuit Courts | Connecticut election as greatly strongthloved him devotedly and thought not then has fallen a victim to soldshness and nog James did ail they could to advise and of the United States and the Superior of his coldness towards her. In a few heet; but I thank Gol it is now in my sustain them, but it availed nothing, for Courts of the territories, from time to

How differently his death affected the upon his sister Mary in his plain traveling They sank lower each day until the erring persons charged with a violation of this act. Says the Post: Itwo sisters! It sank deep into Anna's dress, and sent up his carl. She was in hashand filled a drunkard's grave. Anna | Sec. 5. The commissioners are empowheart, and caused her a spell of sickness: a bad humor at the losses of the day, for then tried anew to arouse self-respect in ered to have concurrent jurisdiction with cess but to keep on the even tenor of his with Mary it was a screen and a fainting she was much in debt, but was delighted her sister, but it was in vain. She had no United States Circuit and District judges way, laboring in the future as he has in fit, and then she sank lower than ever into when she received her brother's card, for resources within herself. Her fashional and territorial judges both in term, time the past, for the welfare of the people, and she thought he had returned rich. She ble friends fell off from her; she sighed and vocation. It was some months before Anna recov resumed in haste the ornaments that she for the follies and dissipations which ered. Her hisband, during her painful had anguily cast aside, for she wished to were no longer within her reach, and final-Figs. Vinegar, Soda, Backing, Wash Boards, many little comforts to procure medicines, a gentleman. After a hasty greeting, she the city of W--. Anna though known whom the accused is alleged to have com-Nails, Starch, Salt, and numerous other articles. | and food. In consequence of his constant told him she hoped he had returned from by a large circle and beloved by all her mitted the offence. The commissioners The highest market price paid for Butter, state of affairs, and rallied as only a lovenot, he had been working hard for a good and gracefully upon her brow, and where may call for assistance upon by-standers, ing woman can rally. Her husband, after character and sufficient to live upon. | the poor and needy want a minstering an or summon a posse commitatus, or the mil-

 Neither, at present: and when I leave you it will be to seek an humble home " perh mansion but a few squares from her. once that it was his sister's child.

Anna heard his name, and the next moment her arms were around his neck, and | gratify to the full the vindictive malice A servant came, but she was refused she was weeping upon his shoulder .-- | they bear toward their subjugated fellow admittance: she then took a small cross She could not speak, but led him into a from her neck, that her mother had placed room, neat, but almost devoid of furniture there when she died. Mary was just put- where he saw upon a bed the emaciated ting the last touches of rouge on her face and almost lifeless form of his sister's the rouge could not hide the deathly pale- Henry extended his feeble arms towards ness of her countenance, for well she re- James, and with much difficulty articulat-mother's love; Blessed Virgin protect us

"He murmured, "Too late! too late!" quent prayer, he rose, pressed his sister | vian frontier if necessary. to his heart, and left the house in silence. After an hour's absence, he returned II ...... On holding a conversation of some length, they prescribed soothing and Particular attention point to CUTTING. and will now make amends. Hand me my strengtening medicines for the night, with a promise to call early in the morning.

For several days they gave but little and love and prayer could do, was done to hold the office will be contested.

"Oh dear? I had quite forgotten him; After another anxious week, the physihim, and a constitution unimpaired by dissi-

Tona's pleasant, shiny face. we is a going to be the old family again, --- up---ho--but here I is a talking, and Master James told me not to say a word. around her. Her father was much disap- | "Yes; poor creature! I suppose she has Get in, chile, get in, before this old nigger tells all be knows."

A short drive brought them to the old family residence, where her husband and James were waiting upon the verandah to wcleome her home.

For the first time. Anna's fortitude deserted her, and she fainted in the arms of is your bridal present, Anna," and ther After the carriage drove off as the two led her to the dining-room, where a few band were to meet her.

"Is she not a beautiful woman? She is! After the congratulations of the friends, landest of which was old Tona, as he ex- laws of the United States, the officers and

and Anna's kindues was received by her ers, so as to afford a speedy and convenient afford to be independent of all parties, and After fash enolds hours. Junes called sister with ingretitude and selfishness .- means for the arrest and examination of to rely for support only upon the people.

PEWEE VALLEY, Ky.

Representation and Taxation --Her manner was cold towards him, and | Representation and direct taxes shall be enight for a small salary, and she obtained there was a restraint upon both. He rose apportioned among the several States in few music scholars. It was more than to go. His sister coelly invited him to which may be included within this Union, process issued under this act, or any per-

The principle that taxation and reprefortes at the following expeedingly low prices, viz: ments. Already feeble, he was soon He thanked her, and saying that if quite sentation must go together, thus clearly enunciated in the Constitution was also was obliged to give up her little income. ! A few moments' walk brought him to asserted by the thirteen colonies, as their dismiss her servant and attend to her his sister Anne's door. A pretty, curly- chief justification for throwing off allegi-City, connecting with the Hannibal Railroad Pack- price from $70 to $525, node general assortment of household duties, her sick husband and headed child of some four or five years, suce to the British Crown, and it is one ALL KINDS OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS: infant. She found herself entirely with with a sweet intelligent face, sat in the which is cordially accepted by every

Has it ever occurred to the Radical leaders, that, in excluding the Southern Mary had never noticed her in any way ! The child looked up into his face, but | States from representation, they may also are they willing to throw the whole onus of the public debt upon the shoulders of their own people; provided only they can citizens of the South? - Quincy Herald.

> Later from Europe. New York, April 12.

Cracow correspondence of the Londor Post, according to intelligence received there from Volotschick, 60 batalions of on the certificate of the district within membered the hour; the whole scene was ed, "Thank God, you have come! it is not infantry, 26 squadrons of cavalry and 93 which the arrest is made, and recoverable befor her. The dying mother, her father, 'too late to save them!' Covering his face pieces of artillery arrived in cehelon from Black, Blue and Fancy Cloths, brother, and herself, the furewell words with his hands and shuddering, he repeat. Volotschick to Navolitze, three days that were spoken, and almost tho last words ed to himself, "They will have a protector march from the Austrian frontier, on the children? O. God! I leave them to thy James kneeling by the side of the bed litze there are not, it is stated more than care. Mary and James, he kind to your and taking his cold hand in his, said, 1,000 men, but on the other hand fortylittle sister; she will never know a Wyou will not go, you will not leave five battalions infantry, tewenty battalions act, it shall be lawful for him, in his diseavalry and one hundred and forty pieces "It is never too late, with God willing, not more than two days' march from the at such place within the district, and at we will restore you to health and happi- Baltic. These might reach Terespal in such a time as he may designate, for the ness." Then offering a heartfelt and elo- four hours, and thence cross the Molda- purpose of the more speedy arrest and party, of which I am a member, is crumb-

> SAMBO IN THE ASCENDANT .-- In the New York, Thomas Nichols, a half-blooded negro-his father being a negro and his mother a white woman-was elected Collector by a majority of four votes over his hope of Harry's recovery, but were con- white opponent, Ira D. Hakes. It is stant in their attention, and all that skill probable, however, that Mr. Nichol's right

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL. of Congress.

SECTION 1. That all persons born in the U. States, and not subject to any foreign power, excluding Indians not taxed, are hereby declared to be citizens of the United States; and such citizens of every race Anna saw there was a mystery between and color without regard to any previous condition of slavery or involuntary serviforce contracts, to sue, to be sued, be par-As he jumped from the box to open the ties and give evidence, to inherit, purdoor, grinning and pulling his forctop, he chase, lease, sell, hold and convey real and how the great Sumner has improved this exclaimed, "God bless you, Miss Anna, personal property, and to be entitled to version of the proverb. In a speech in how glad I is to see you this blessed day! full and equal benefit of all laws and pro- the Senate, the other day, he said that does you do, chile, an' this little miss; she property, as is enjoyed by white citizens, to her studies-a great part of her time gentlemen who had stopped to examine a beauty, and a Mouroe, out-and out; she is pains and penalties, and to none other, any mountain." Thereppon the disunion rabbeing devoted to dancing and entering the beautiful piece of statuary that stood in a very picter of Master Henry. An' I law, statute, ordinance, regulation or cus- ble exclaim, "What eloquence!" "What tom to the contrary notwithstanding.

any inhabitant of any State or Territory of any right secured by this act, under color of law, regulation or custom, is declared guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both at the discretion of the court

SEC. 3. The United States Distric Courts shall have exclusive cognizance of and grandmother of the young French all offences against this act, and also, con- princes who fought in the United States currently with the United States Circuit army during the rebellion, died on the Court, of all civil and criminal causes affecting persons where rights are secured by section 1. Any suit against such perand amuse him. He wrote for his son her appearance hanging on the arm of the act was to throw herself at the foot of the sons, begun in any State Court, may be removed for trial to the proper District or Circuit Court. In exceptional cases the common law, as modified and changed by Canadian cities to keep out the cholera. the Constitution and statutes of the State Precautionary and sanitary measures are the foot of that cross since her mother's wherein the Court having jurisdiction of being taken inanticipation of its approach. the cause, civil or criminal, is held so far | Chronic diarrhoa is prevalent here. as the same is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States, shall be extended, and govern said Courts in the trial and disposition of such cause, and if of a criminal nature, in the infliction of punishment on the party found guilty. Sec. 4. The District Attorneys, Mar-

> States; the Commissioners appointed by informed as to the state of meir home afthe Circuit and Territorial Courts of the fairs. The Radical majority of 10,761 United States, with powers of arresting, claimed, "The Blessed Virgin an' all the agents of the Freedmen's Bureau, and ev- more than thirty Representatives; and, powered by the President of the United

SEC. 6. United States Marshals and gress, and no cabals out of it, no disuntheir deputies are required to obey all ionists, North and South, prevent his seillness had been her constant nurse. He make an impression. She went to the ly followed her husband to an early grave. warrants issued under this act. In case of curing the integrity, the prosperity and was obliged to give up his situation, and parlor with a studied smile and extended Henry and James are among the most refusal they may be fined one thousand the liberties of each and all sections of the his salary had stopped, and he parted with hand, but was surprised at seeing so plain successful and substantial merchants in dollars for the use of the person upon country. watching and uneasiness of mind he had the land of gold a millionaire, with pienty friends, is rarely seen in gay society .-- are empowered to appoint county assist- has become a perfect negro paradise .-become feeble and pale. Anna saw the of diamonds and pearls. He said he had The crown of matronly duty sits lightly ants to execute warrants, and the latter itary and naval forces.

ly and wrongfully obstruct, hinder or them to white ladies. They are fed out prevent any officer or other person charg- of the public treasury, and the "poor white ed with the execution of any warrant or trash" are taxed to support them in indoson or persons lawfully assisting, or attempt to rescue prisoners from custody, daily issued to negroes in the District of is subject to a fine not exceeding one hun- Columbia, and they are also furnished; by dred dollars, and imprisonment not ex- the Government with fuel, clothing and ceeding six months, by indictment before medical assistance. There's where the the United States District Court, or the proper court of criminal jurisdiction, if onerous taxes we pay go to. committed within any one of the organized Territories of the United States. ed us with a hen-egg, which we challenge

SEC. 8. The District Attorneys, Mar- the world to beat. This enormous then shals and their deputies, and Clerks of dis-production" weighs three-quarters of a trict and territorial courts shall be paid | pound. The hen that produces this vast for their services the tees allowed for sim- amount of usefulness, is in fine health, Brass and Silver Cornets, upright and overshoul- since her father's death. She wrote to didn't answer. He repeated the question. relieve them from Federal taxation? Or liar services in other cases, and in all and clays" one of the same size daily.cases where the proceedings are before a | Ralls County Record. Commissioner, he shall be entitled to a fee of ten dollars in full for his services in each case, juclusive of all services jucident has read of the extensive manufacture of to such arrest and examination. The person or persons authorized to execute has run, said that she wished some Conthe process issued by commissioners for necticut genius would invent an instruthe arrest of offenders be entitled to a fee | ment to tell how far husbands had been of five dollars for each person arrested, with such other fees as may be deemed reasonable by the commissioner, to be paid out of the Treasury of the United States, from the defendant as part of the judgment in case of conviction. Moldavian frontier. Starting from Navol- United States shall have reason to believe by a delegation of colored women, who that offences have been, or are likely to be visited the Senate Chamber for that purcommitted against the provisions of this erction to direct the Judge, Marshal and of artillery are stationed in the districts District Attorney of the district to attend trial of persons charged with a violation ling to pieces, and that every day we postof this act; and it shall be the duty of evrery judge or other officer, when such rewith the celebrated doctors M and town of Petersburg, Rensselaer county, quisition shall be received by him, to at- insures the destruction of that party."tend at the place and on the time therein Referring to the recent Connecticut elec-persons as he may empower for that purpose, to employ such part of the land or the militia, as shall be necessary to pre., and wine the strongest heads...

NUMBER charged for accordingly.

vent the violation and enforce the due execution of this acta, some some if money SEC, 11. That upon all questions of law arising in any cause under the provisons of this act, a final appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States:

LIBERTY

Bach additional insertion, per square --

One column, without change, one year,

Funeral tickets $3; if distributed by us, Announcing candidates, in advance,

One square six months,

Administrators' notices,

Final settlement notices,

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. One square, ten lines, one insertion, - 1 $ 1 26

One quarter of a column, twolve months 30 00

All advertisements, not marked with the number of insertions, will be published till forbid and

TRIBUNE

Sumner's Eloquence.—Everybody is familiar with the proverb, first written in Latin, which so well illustrates bombastic brought forth a mouse." This is very emphatic, clear and direct. Now hear something, no matter what, was like "the muscipular abortion of the parturient a great orator!" "What a wonderful Sec. 2. Any person who shall deprive scholar!" "A man of such extraordinary classical attainments!" "A great statesman, most certainly!"

DEATH OF AN Ex-QUEEN, -Maria Amelie, ex-Queen of the French, the second daughter of Ferdinand the First, King, of the Two Sicilies, wife of Louis Philippe, 24th ultimo, at Claremont, England, aged eighty four years.

Sanitary Anti-Cholera Measures. Montreal, C. E., April 12 The greatest activity prevails in all

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.—The result of the recent hard fought contest is virtually the extinction of Radicalism in the Nutmeg State, and it is so regarded by the candid journals of the adjoining New shals and Deputy Marshals of the United | England States, who ought to be the best last year has been reduced to 509; the Democrats gained nine State Senators and with all the adverse influences arrayed against them, have shown that in the Congressional election next fall the Radical ening the hands of the President. So large they will see to it that no faction in Con-

A NEGRO PARADISE.—Washington City Negroes crowd into the galleries of both houses of Congress, to the exclusion of the whites. They crowd into street cars. SEC. 7. Any person who shall knowing. fill up the seats, and refuse to surrender lence. It is said that 3,500 rations are

> AN INVENTION NEEDED. - A lady who chronometers, to tell how far a carriage

Mrs. Judge Harris of this city present-in the evening when they just step down to the post office. TRIBUTE OF ADMIRATION.—A dispatch from Washington, of the 9th, tells us that "each Senator who voted for the civil rights bill, over the veto, was presented SEC. 9. Whenever the President of the to day with beautiful boquet of flowers, pose." "Lovely Dinah," &c. 12 CRUMBLING TO PIECES .- In the Senate. a few days since, Mr. Lane, of Kansas, said: "This I know-that the Republican pone the reception of the Southern States tion, he observed that "one more victory SEC. 10. That it shall be lawful for the like that would ruin the Republican party. President of the United States, or such It was the first scratch of the handwriting navel forces of the United States, or of Power will intoxicate the best hearts,